Autumn Nights

Foggy breezy nights
Leaves fall off the branches
Acorns fill the ground.

Ajay Catania

A Day Worth Remembering

The kitchen packed with overwhelming smells.
An amazing story of love and culture.

One that only our food tells.

Athena Barrett

The Harvest

Pilgrims gave thanks for the Harvest, they had onions, squash, corn, and some meat.
They must have had something sweet.

With their new friends they felt very blessed.

Annie Baxter

A Fantastic Fall

Thanksgiving
is when the turkey comes
You cannot forget to have some
When the leaves turn brown
You hear the wind's sound
I can't wait for a family
Thanksgiving.

Aria Mendoza

Emily Schrider

Fall

During the season of autumn,
As the air starts to chill,
Leaves fall off the trees,
And then they fly downhill.

Jack Pellegrini

This Time of the Year

It's that wonderful time of year,
It is around Thanksgiving time,
Turkeys and family galore,
To love this time, it is no crime.

Sahaana Shah

Fall Changing

Fall will always change
From apples to corn to yams
Fall will always change

The Best Part of Me

Without a doubt, the best parts of me are my eyes because I can see friends and family.

Xander Loewenberg

The Best Part of Me

The best parts of me are my eyes because
I can see, show expressions, and learn.

Sophia Cantalupo

My Eyes

My eyes are light blue
Like the ocean on a
Clear summer day.

My eyes are a window to my soul.
My eyes tell you when I'm happy
And when I'm sad.

My eyes saw the wonder of Niagara Falls.
They saw spectacular fireworks on the Fourth of July.

My eyes saw the magical Hogwarts Castle in Universal Studios.

My eyes see paint strokes on the canvas.
They see the vivid colors.

My eyes see the paintings come to life.
My eyes will see the road ahead of me
When I learn to drive.

My eyes will see my cap and gown when
I graduate from college.

These eyes will see me do my job
I choose to pursue.

My eyes will be saying to my kids,
"I love you."

Gianna Angioletti

The Best Part of Me

The best parts of me are my eyes because they can change colors, they can see very well, and they help me focus.

Joseph Fuentes

The Best Part of Me

In my opinion, the best parts of me are my eyes because I can see beautiful land, see my family, and I can find things.

Emerson Overcash

These Eyes

These eyes are full of color
Different shades of blue, green, and gray
These eyes observe this world
And those around it
These eyes have watched people grow
And develop walking and talking
Also to discover wonderful sights
These eyes read words from fascinating books
They focus on drawing incredible images
And learning things in school
These eyes will absorb different languages
And more words to discover
